Natalie Lennon is a communication major and psychology minor, with plans for spring 2019 graduation. She found interest in Women's Health after her internship with MUSC's Women's Reproductive and Behavioral Health Program. As a practicing vegan, Natalie is passionate about living a healthy lifestyle. Upon graduating, she hopes to pursue a master's degree in Public Health and to explore mental health's impact on overall wellbeing.