Educational Highlights: During my undergraduate career, I've had a variety of academic opportunities provided to me. I was awarded the Alexander C. Dick Scholarship for pre-law, received the George and Agnes Heltai Award in history and one of the 2017 Outstanding Student awards in sociology. I interned for One80 Place's Homeless Justice Project and am scheduled to graduate with a 3.96 GPA.

Research Focus or Project: In history, I researched the perception of drug use and race in the 1960s. In sociology, I explored fake ID usage among female college students.

Future Plans: I deferred from University of Michigan Law for a year to volunteer with World Wide Opportunities on Organic Farms (WWOOF) to work the Vendage in France. I will return in August of 2018 to focus on a career in public interest law.

This award presented by Jerold L. Hale, dean of the School of Humanities and Social Sciences, and the Department of History at the College of Charleston on the 12th day of May, 2017.
